FALL LEG

"ON FIRE" TOUR OFF & RUNNING

Well, off and running is right! After a summer full of festival concerts, special events and working in the studio on our "Praise" record, we hit the road in Orlando Florida at Disney World's Night of Joy.

From Disney we made a quick trip to Australia and New Zealand for four concerts and then returned to Albuquerque, NM to begin the fall leg of the "Who Do You Listen To?" tour, with Josh McDowell. The 30 city tour, with Josh, which began in Oklahoma City on April 1st, is a result of our appearing in a film that Josh McDowell Ministries produced, "Who Do You Listen To: Sex In The Age of Aids".

When Word Records told Petra that the first record under the new recording agreement between Word and Petra was going to be spectacular, little did we know what they had in mind. Word wanted to combine the power of Petra's rock music with the vastness of God's creation. The result will be PETRA PRAISE.

In June Petra flew to Monument Valley, Arizona by way of Farmington, New Mexico, to photograph the cover for this

PETRA/JOSH PREMIERE IN OK CITY

The long awaited premiere concert with Petra and Josh McDowell finally came on April 1st. It was a day we had prayed about, along with Josh and his ministry team for months. The more Petra has come to know Josh and his staff, the more we have come to agree on the tremendous need for communicating the message of waiting until marriage to become sexually active. We have come to believe that God has a huge job for us to accomplish in the coming months with the Who Do You Listen To? tour.

Our prayers for this tour brought us to Oklahoma City on April 1st. The bus arrived early and was soon met by the Youth Minister of Metro Church, J.D. Glass, who had coordinated most of the arrangements. The band arrived later that day and immediately began meetings with Josh to finalize the nights program.

Earlier, Josh met with 100 Youth Pastors and Pastors, explaining how they can work more effectively with the students in their churches dealing with the issue of sexual involvement.

We had a great turn out in Oklahoma City, with over 3,000 students intently listening to Josh and wildly rejoicing with Petra. The concert had it's surprises, including rap group P.I.D. joining Petra onstage. The audience refused to let P.I.D. leave without performing one of their unique raps. Hundreds of students stood in response to Josh McDowell's challenge to remain sexually pure and to commit their relationships to be pleasing to the Lord.

"Hundreds stood in Response"

From Oklahoma City, the Petra/Josh caravan continued to Green Bay, WI, Rochester, MN, and Joplin, MO. The concerts have been heralded as the most exciting presentation of music and message ever to hit the road. We are anxious to begin the fall concerts with Josh with the anticipation of thousands of students dedicating their lives and relationships to the Lord as we move across the country.

PETRA SETS EUROPE "ON FIRE"

PETRA recently returned from a tour of Western Europe which drew the largest crowds ever for Christian concerts in twelve cities. The band played venues in West Germany, Switzerland, Norway, Finland, Denmark, Holland, and Sweden. PETRA performed every show on the March 6-18 schedule despite being hampered by difficulties including a riot in Switzerland and vehicle failure.

Transportation on the tour was by every possible means, including airplanes, trains and boats.

Attendance estimates were between 40,000 and 50,000 total on PETRA's first Grand Scale tour of Europe. The tour was highlighted by three standing-room-only dates in West Germany, where a total of nearly 10,000 concert goers comprised close to 10% of that country's population of professing Christians. The last date in the tour was PETRA's headline engagement at a sold-out festival in Goteborg, Sweden which drew 15,000 fans.

PETRA saw a real need for ministry in Europe and we were glad to be able to spend some time with the students. Many of the fans knew the English words to the songs and sang along as PETRA performed onstage. The band was able to give an invitation through translators and because of this they saw many lives committed to the Lord and others renewed in their promises.

Kevin Underwood, Road Manager for PETRA, stated "It was interesting to learn the similarities between students from Europe and the U.S. They had many of the same interests and problems as American students and we were able to minister to them through concerts and counseling."

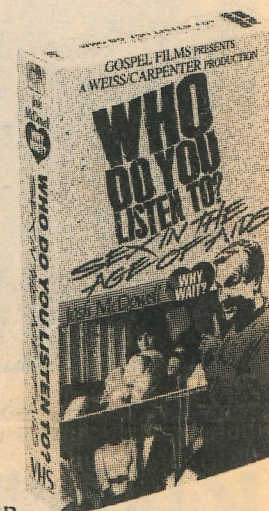

Even now, PETRA has planning underway for their return tour to Europe in June of 1990. Says Underwood, "Despite there being few hamburgers and almost no laundries, it was an exciting trip. I'll be happy just to go and see the beautiful countryside again."

"WHO DO YOU LISTEN TO?"

FILM RELEASED

The latest video resource in Josh McDowell's ongoing Why Wait? campaign, "Who Do You Listen To? Sex in the Age of Aids" has been released by Gospel Films. Bob Hartman composed original music for the film, along with PETRA performing the title song.

Produced in several versions for use by Public Schools, Churches, and Youth Groups, the new release talks about the consequences of sexual involvement outside of marriage in today's world.

Information about the availability of the "Who Do You Listen To?" film can be obtained at one of the PETRA/Josh concerts or by calling Gospel Films, 1-800-253-0413.

Letters...

Dear Petra,
How many albums have you done, and what are the names?

Sam Fletcher-Boise, ID

OK, here we go: PETRA, COME & JOIN US, WASHES WHITER THAN, NEVER SAY DIE, NOT OF THIS WORLD, MORE POWER TO YA, BEAT THE SYSTEM, CAPTURED IN TIME & SPACE, BACK TO THE STREET, THIS MEANS WAR!, ON FIRE!, and the praise album to be released this year, PETRA PRAISE. Let's see, if my calculator works right, that's 12 all together.

Dear Guys,
This letter is long overdue but I hope it encourages you as you continue to spread the word about Jesus.....

About five months ago, my wife and I were introduced to your band after a friend loaned us one of your records. The moment we got it home, we were overwhelmed by its spiritual power, both lyrically and musically.....Although I had been raised by Christian parents, who taught me from the Bible of my need for Jesus, I never stopped to think about what He had really done when He came to die for me.

Imagine my sorrow when the reality of my guilt was brought to light. That sorrow turned to the Joy of Salvation when on Sunday March 5th of this year both my wife and I gave our lives to JESUS!

I work as a D.J. on the local radio station, and my shift is from 7 to 10 p.m. Our format is flexible and allows me a great opportunity to play a lot of your music for many who have never heard the Good News!..... I thank the Lord for this ministry He has given me!
Dino Cannon-Wilkes-Barre, PA

Dear Petra,
I filled out a mailing list card at a concert, but I haven't received a newsletter yet, why not?

Bob Simpson-Dayton, OH

Good Question! PETRA plays over 100 concerts each year with more than a half million people in attendance. That's a lot of mailing list cards to process!! Really though, our current list has over 25,000 names and sometimes it just takes a while to get your name card from the concert, to the office, listed on the computer and then sorted onto our mailing list. Hang in there!

Dear Petra,
What does the name PETRA mean?

Tina Edgewater-Los Angeles, CA

PETRA is greek for "Rock" as in "our faith is founded on the Rock" and also for Rock music.

KIM "SERVES"

DALLAS

Although the road is more fun with Da Da Da, there are many times that Kim does concerts and makes appearances without her band. If you have seen her in concert in the past two years, chances are that you saw her doing a track concert (just Kim and tapes). That trend is changing but there are still occasions when she goes it alone.

August will have taken Kim through two international trips by the time this newsletter reaches the post office. On the 12th of August she joins Bash-N-the-Code for their annual Christian cruise. This year they will be sailing throughout the Caribbean with stops at the beautiful islands of St. Thomas, St. Croix and Nassau. Then she will head to Mexico for her third visit. This trip has strong ministry opportunities. Kim has been embraced by the Church in Mexico on two previous trips and all those involved are enthusiastic about the response to her new music and ministry on this trip.

Back in April, Kim made an early morning appearance at WORD Records sales conference. The sales people who are responsible for getting WORD's music to the local bookstores met in Dallas for their regular conference. All were present for breakfast the first day and found a surprise waitress attending to their needs. Kim Boyce, appropriately attired in bathrobe, slippers, and hair rollers, expressed her gratitude for the salesman's support of her first two records by being their servant for the morning. It was an unusual and fun morning for all and a chance to see another side of Kim (the early morning, no make-up side).

These are just a few of the excursions Kim makes on her own. They are fun but the miles add up to leave a person exhausted and grateful for time at home. Knowing what God has called her to do and relying on His strength to do it keeps her going. Seeing hearts touched with Jesus' love through her music encourages her and she knows her hard work is accomplishing its task, whether alone or with the band.

GMA WEEK FULL OF ACTIVITIES:

"LOVE IS YOU TO ME" DEBUT

The Gospel Music Association has its annual conference each spring in Nashville. It is a week of meetings, seminars, and concerts for anyone involved in Christian music. Beyond the typical activities, the week of April 9-13 found Kim involved in three special events.

Upon arriving at the convention, Kim started it off by catching up to Blaine Bartell from "Fire by Nite", a video program from Tulsa. They met in front of a popular tourist attraction in the heart of music row. She then gave the guests a personal tour of several sights in the music row area. When they dropped by a local recording studio they found Kim Hill working on her second album. The final stop was one of Nashville's popular breakfast spots, the Pancake Pantry, where they found Bryan Duncan checking out the local cuisine.

The next major event of her week was a special listening party for her new album, "Love is You to Me". President of WORD Records, Roland Lundy, began the informal gathering by expressing his support of Kim as an artist and minister of the Gospel.

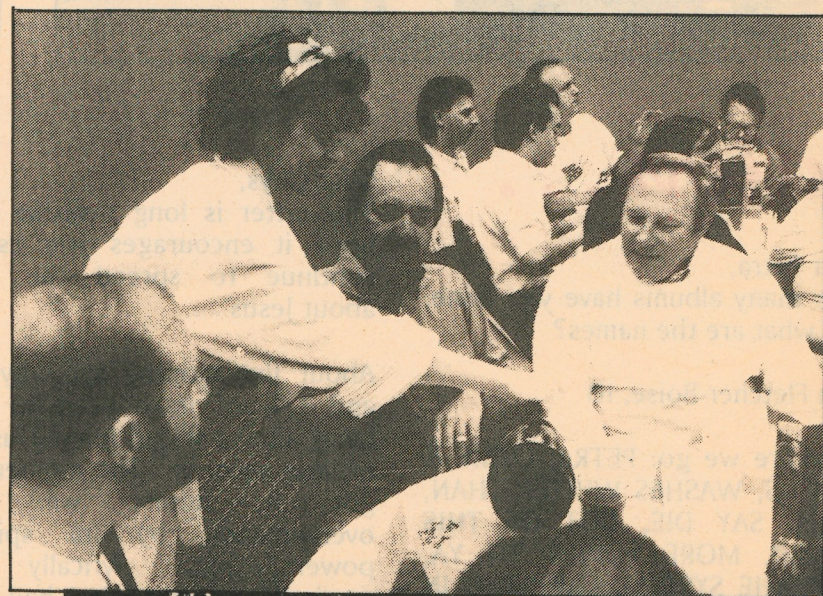

Kim then had the opportunity to make several important introductions, beginning of course, with the album. She then thanked the Imperials, who were present for the event, for their contribution of background vocals on the title song. Her next intro was of her new manager, Paul Jackson of FirstBorne Productions. His expertise has added to the excitement of this new release.

Before turning the party over to the sound system she called on Todd Cooper, Shane Atkinson, and Gary Alexander, a.k.a. Da Da Da, to thank them for their faithful support on the road.

"Dove Awards final highlight for week"

The final highlight came the last night of the convention. The Dove awards annually conclude GMA week by recognizing artists, writers and others who have excelled in their gifts during the past year. Kim was invited to be a co-host for the show along with Larnelle Harris, and Kelly Nelon Thompson. They were one of four trios hosting the two hour program. To conclude their segment of the show, Kim, Kelly, and Larnelle sang an acappella version of "Goodnight Sweetheart".

Kim left GMA week with the support of many more people anticipating the new release. But, with two and a half months yet to wait, Kim wasted no time at getting back to "business as usual". The very next morning she headed to New York with her band.

Hi Gang!

I'm real excited about having a newsletter to share what is going on in our ministry. The last few months have been real busy with many changes, both personally and in my ministry. Everything has brought me into a closer relationship with Jesus, and for that, I'm grateful.

Now let me tell you about my new album, "Love is You to Me." This album is the result of a lot of hard work from a lot of people particularly my long-time producer, Brian Tankersley and two new producers, Rhett Lawrence and Tim Miner.

Tim and I co-wrote a song on the album called "Tender Heart." It is a song about hurt and the conscious decision we have to make not to let that hurt become a bitterness in our lives.. We must keep our hearts sensitive & open, even vulnerable, to people in order to keep it open to the Lord at the same time.

Bryan Duncan was kind enough to sing vocals on "Askin' You." This is a song about prayer. It is based on the Lord's promise, "Ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you. For everyone who asks receives; he who seeks finds; and to him who knocks, the door will be opened." I am just stubborn enough to believe that and to keep knocking until I know my prayer has gotten through. I am thrilled that Bryan helped with the vocals.

SPRING TOUR HIGHLIGHTS

Nineteen Eighty Nine has been a year of growth and opportunity for Kim and her band, Da Da Da. The guys playing with her are Gary Alexander on guitar, Shane Atkinson on drums and Todd Cooper on saxophone (and a variety of miscellaneous percussion pieces ). They have each accepted their place as a "Da" with enthusiasm and have put in many long hours rehearsing and traveling to achieve a tight sound and energetic show.

May holds the record for hours spent in the van. The guys began their lengthy journey for the month with a three day drive from Nashville to Los Angeles. There they caught up with Kim who was allready there for a solo concert. The weeks worth of concerts in California were highlighted with appearances at Magic Mountain, and TBN's "Real Videos" put Kim, Gary, Shane and Todd in front of the camera. They gave them the mic and the result was live footage of their unique, off-the-wall humor fresh from the van. After sunny California they headed down into the sweltering heat of the southwest and then made a long haul to the beautiful northwest. In Tacoma, Washington they joined BeBe and CeCe Winans, opening the shows there for the HEAVEN tour. They concluded the tour with a four day drive back home to Nashville.

After a show at home in Nashville two days later for Youth for Christ, they began preparing for the next phase of the summer--learning the new music. Two hectic weeks in June found Shane, Gary and Todd hard at work on parts, vocals and even choreography. They put the new show to the test at the album premiere in Dallas. Two nights at the Christian club FOOTLOOSE was an event to remember. The night included a special appearance by Kim's mom and sister, Tonya. They reunited the Melody Three Singers, the group they sang in growing up. The concerts turned out not only to be an album premeire, but also a bit of "This is Your Life....."

These are merely a few highlights of band events. They also made appearances at LoveFest in Milford, NE and at the Christian Artists Seminar in Estes Park, CO. The rest of the fall and coming year hold many more opportunities to see Kim and the guys in concert. Listen for a concert in your area.

I am most excited about the title cut, "Love is You to Me," because one of my favorite groups of all time, the Imperials, sang back-up. I was honored to have my childhood heroes on this album. Growing up in Florida, I sang along with their albums in our living room and dreamed of being the first female Imperial.

Although that did not quite happen, I worked it out to have them on my album. I wrote the song with Jimmie Lee and it simply talks of how the love of God is the only true love that we will find. After looking in many places it finally boils down to the fact that other loves will disappoint us and leave us empty, but the love of the Lord never fails. Having learned the hard way, I finally understand that love truly is the Lord to me.

There's a song on the album for those of you who have been long-time supporters of my music and ministry as well as for my family and close friends. I wanted you to know how much your friendship and letters mean to me. Your expressions of appreciation of my music and lyrics have encouraged me during times when circumstances were dark. "Holdin' My Hand" is for all of you who have been there.

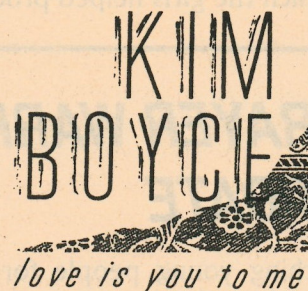

I hope you enjoy this new newsletter. For those of you who are seeing this for the first time I hope you will find meeting my band and me an entertaining and informative experience.

In His Love and Mine,

Kim Boyce

Image Merchandising, Inc. has recently begun handling merchandise for Kim Boyce. The new shirt designs are definitely eye-catchers! The message on the jumbo t-shirt, for instance, can help you tell a friend that Jesus Christ is the true source of love.

"We have enjoyed getting to know the guys over the past years" said Sherry. "We were so surprised to be given the passes and the jackets in Tampa. We never expected anything of that nature and are still a little shocked."

Over 22,000 miles on the road.

The two have logged over 22,000 miles on the road and over 4,000 in the air enroute to see PETRA. "We just felt it was about time to show our appreciation to Kim and Sherry" stated the band. "They've been die-hard fans and the original Prayer-Warriors."

PETRA SUPPORTERS HONORED

Two of PETRA's most loyal fans were given the royal treatment backstage at a recent Tampa Fla. concert. Kim & Sherry Singletary, of Ft. Myers, Florida have attended dozens of PETRA concerts over the last ten years, following the band from New Jersey to St. Louis and all over the eastern United States.

The sisters were rewarded for their faithfulness with lifetime free admittance to future PETRA concerts, hot off the press "ON FIRE!" tour jackets, laminated backstage passes, and a framed copy of the spring/summer BATTLE PLAN Petra newsletter, which the girls helped produce.

In addition to working on the newsletter, the sisters proved their loyalty to the band by driving to Nashville in January to attend the wedding of bassman Ronny Cates, and by making the 1650 mile round trip again just a few weeks later to witness the February nuptials of drummer Louie Weaver.

Additional moments & tidbits we could find according to the Singletary's:

First PETRA concert: Ft. Myers Senior High School, 1983. An acquired PETRA photo collection of over 15,000 photos. The longest non-stop straight drive one way for a concert was 21 hours, which was John Schlitt's first concert in the U.S. And they've been to at least 49 PETRA concerts since '83.

BABY BOOM

Spring brought the arrival of a couple of additions to the Petra family, and the beginnings of another.

Dorla Schlitt, wife of John Schlitt, gave birth to a 7 lb baby boy, Michael Krey on May 31st. "He's already practicing his vocal abilities" stated Dorla.

Also Julie Gallup, wife of monitor engineer Jeff Gallup, gave birth on May 15th to a 7 lb baby boy also, Isaac Thomas. Jeff arrived in Nashville from a two week tour just in time to shave, shower and dash to the Hospital to witness the birth of their son later that night. Tina Keil, wife of tour manager Mike Keil found that she was expecting also and is due in January of '90. I still think this is a sign of times to come, maybe PETRA II.

Coming to a theatre near you!!

PRAYER WARRIOR UPDATE

Reaching young people for Christ through their concerts and assisting the local church in helping young believers becoming firmly established in their faith in God through Jesus Christ continues to be the main objective of PETRA's ministry. PETRA earnestly desires to help young Christians realize their importance in the Kingdom of God.

Out of this desire grew the concept of PETRA Prayer Warriors. PETRA's vision was a network of groups made up of young people of all ages that were willing to unite together in prayer for their church, schools, families, and friends.

What began as a handful of Prayer Warrior Groups has now grown to over one hundred groups. These Prayer Warrior Groups range in size of five to over two hundred young people. Prayer Warrior Groups can be found not only in the United States but also in Canada, Australia, Puerto Rico, Sweden, and South Africa. Just recently each of these groups received a complete listing of all the Prayer Warrior Groups and their addresses so that they might contact those in their area for special prayer rallies.

PETRA Prayer Warrior Groups are encouraged to spend time in prayer together and as a group. In praying together for their churches, schools, families, friends, and the prayer needs of their partner group, God's power is released in the earth. United prayer is one of the most powerful spiritual weapons believers have. These groups are learning to overcome the intimidation of the enemy and pray aloud, to vocalize their faith in God to meet their needs through the promises in His Word, and believe God for His intervention in their lives and in others. Step-by-Step they are becoming real Prayer Warriors!

PETRA would like to thank their Prayer Warrior Groups for their faithful prayer support and ask them to begin laying a prayer foundation for the fall/winter concert tour, a new PETRA album, and PETRA's continued effort to put together creative and useful tools for the youth pastor or leader to use with their youth groups. Remember the Prayer Warrior Update Line gives current concert information and current prayer requests along with a short devotional. The correct phone number is 615-254-3856.

Many Prayer Warriors have written PETRA asking for united prayer concerning such issues as satanic worship, abortion, and teen suicide. PETRA is asking Prayer Warrior Groups to stand together in prayer against these and other destructive influences in your communities. When the Army of God rises up together in prayer the enemy shall surely be defeated!

If you are a youth pastor or leader and are interested in learning more about PETRA Prayer Warrior Groups, please write: PETRA WORLD MINISTRIES, P.O. Box 190, Nashville, Tn 37202. PETRA's desire is to help you in your ministry with young people.

TOUR...

The PETRA / Josh McDowell concerts consist of our ON FIRE! opening and performing the film's title cut, Who Do You Listen To?, followed by Josh talking about sex, dating relationships, AIDS and related issues. PETRA then follows Josh with a complete performance of the ON FIRE! concert.

Please be in prayer as we venture forth this fall. Our desire is to see students leave the concerts ON FIRE! for God, and to have a clear understanding of Who They should be listening to!

MESA...

new project. The scenery was awesome. Landscape two hundred million years old became the backdrop for the cover which will appear on Petra's recording of Praise Choruses due out in September.

Using a chartered helicopter, the band was airlifted from the desert floor, fifteen hundred feet to the top of one of the many mesas found in this ancient area of the Navaho Indian Reservation. On this perch where possibly no human had ever before set foot, Petra expressed the feelings of Praise that they hoped to communicate in PETRA PRAISE as well.

Photographers and technicians then boarded the helicopter to capture the band from numerous perspectives in over five hundred separate photographs.

One series of photos required the band be moved to an 8 by 10 rock surface, 400 feet high. There were anxious moments as the helicopter made repeated trips to get everyone positioned. Another series of photos reveals Petra playing their praise songs on the edge of a fifteen hundred foot shear drop.

As the temperature and winds rose throughout the day, the PETRA PRAISE photo shoot made its mark as one of the most memorable events in the history of Petra.

Watch for the results of this unique day on the cover and insert of PETRA PRAISE.

Petra is proud to bring you, in this issue of the Battle Plan, information about the ministry of Kim Boyce. Over the past three years, Kim has become one of Christian music's most notable artists. Petra's management company, FirstBorne Productions, has begun a long-term relationship in support of Kim's ministry. Kim's message is simple and true. "What ever we do to mess up in life, God is always there to forgive us and love us." We hope you enjoy learning more about Kim and her ministry through the Battle Plan.
